[AS AMENDED BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE, ON RE-COMMITMENT, AND ON CONSIDERATION OF BILL AS AMENDED]

TO

Consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Leasing Powers in Ireland.

[Note.—The Clauses marked A. to I. were added by the Select Committee.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the Preamble.
Laws relating to the Power of leasing Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in Ireland by Persons having partial or limited Interests in the same, or being under legal Incapacity or Disability, so as to render the said Powers more uniform and generally understood, and more extensive and beneficial to the Community at large, and more conducive to the Development of the agricultural, mineral, and commercial Resources of the Country: And whereas it is also expedient that Persons having such partial and limited Interests in such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments as aforesaid should be enabled to enter into Agreements binding the Inheritance, and entitling the Tenants thereof, in certain Cases, at the Termination of their Tenancies, to Compensation for the Execution of suitable Improvements therein: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. That in the Construction of this Act the Word "Lessor" shall Glossary:
"Lessor:"
extend to a Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, making Leases:

VIII. Every

VIII. Every Lease made under this Act shall import and imply the following Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements on the Part of the Tenant, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, with the Landlord, his Executors, Administrators, and Successors in Estate, and the same shall be as effectual and binding as if they were expressly inserted in such Lease:

General
Covenants and Conditions.

1. That the Tenant shall pay when due the Rent reserved, and all Taxes and Impositions payable by the Tenant:
2. That the Tenant shall repair, maintain, and keep the demised Premises during the Term in good and substantial Repair, with all Buildings, Fixtures, and Improvements, and all Gates, Hedges, Ditches, Fences, Drains, existing or erected at any Time during the said Term:
3. That the Tenant shall give up peaceable Possession of the demised Premises, with all Buildings, Erections, Fixtures, and Improvements thereon, in good and substantial Repair and Condition, on the Determination of the Lease, subject, however, to any Right of Compensation for Improvements that may have arisen in respect of them:
4. That it shall be lawful for the Landlord or his Agent, at all reasonable Times, to enter on and inspect the Premises:
5. Also to re-enter, in case of Nonpayment of the Rent after it is due:
6. Also to re-enter, in case of any unlawful Assignment or Sub-letting.

IX. Every Agricultural Lease made under this Act shall, in addition to the Covenants and Conditions enumerated in Section VIII., also import and imply the following Covenants on the Part of the Lessee:

Agricultural Covenants.

1. To manage, till, and use the Lands demised, in due and regular Course of good Husbandry, so that the same shall not be in anywise injured or deteriorated:
2. Not to burn, or permit to be burnt, any Part of the Soil or Surface of the Lands demised, without the previous Consent in Writing of the Landlord.

X. Every Improvement Lease made under this Act shall, in addition to the Covenants and Conditions enumerated in Section VIII., also import and imply the following Covenant and Agreement on the Part of the Lessee:

Improvement Covenants.

- To proceed to improve the said Lands within Twelve Months after the Commencement of the Lease, and effectually to reclaim at least One Tenth Part of the said Lands during every Three Years of the said Term, until the whole or so much thereof as is capable of Reclamation shall have been reclaimed, and that in default it shall be lawful for the Lessor and his Successors in Estate to re-enter and possess themselves as of their former Estate, subject however to fair Compensation to the Tenant for such Portion of the Work of Reclamation as may have been actually accomplished, to be recovered in like Manner and subject to the like Deductions and Defences as in Cases of Claims for Compensation for Improvements on and separable from the Soil as herein-after provided.

Mining
Covenants.

XI. Every Mining Lease made under this Act shall, in addition to the Covenants and Conditions enumerated in Section VIII, also import and imply the following Covenant and Agreement on the Part of the Lessee :

1. To commence effectually to work the Mines, Minerals, Quarries, or Beds of Earth demised, within Two Years next after the Commencement of said Lease, and afterwards to continue the effectual carrying on of the said Works, and that in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Lessor and his Successors in Estate to re-enter and possess themselves as of their former Estate.

Building
Covenants.

XII. Every Building and Public Lease made under this Act shall, in addition to the Covenants and Conditions enumerated in Section VIII, also import and imply the following Covenant and Agreement on the Part of the Lessee :

- To erect in a permanent and substantial Manner on the demised Premises, Buildings of an annual Value of not less than Three Times the highest Rent reserved in the said Lease, or to repair or improve Buildings already erected, or otherwise increase the letting Value of the said Premises, such Repairs or Improvements being such that the annual Value of the Lands demised shall be thereby increased to not less than Twice the Rent reserved in such Lease ; and that in case such Buildings or Improvements shall not have been made within Five Years from the Commencement of the said Lease, the Lessor and his Successors in Estate may re-enter and possess themselves as of their former Estate.

Leases
penalizable for certain Waste.

XIII. The Lessee in every Lease made under this Act (except a Mining Lease) shall be liable for all Waste by him permitted or committed, but shall nevertheless (unless by the said Lease otherwise expressly provided to the contrary) be at liberty to make such Additions and Alterations in and upon the Lands and Premises demised, and to dig for and use in and upon and remove from the same such Stone, Limestone, Earth, Clay, Loam, Marl, Sand, and Gravel Gravel as may be necessary to use on or remove from the Premises, for effecting the Purposes for which said Lease was granted.

- XIV. Where any Lease shall be made under this Act for the Purpose of building, and the Lessee therein shall be empowered to assign or sublet in Parcels, it shall be lawful, by express Terms in the said Lease, to confine the Right of Entry or Re-entry for the Breach of any of the Covenants and Conditions therein contained or implied, to the Part of the Lands in respect of which the Breach or Default shall have been committed or suffered; and that notwithstanding the Avoidance of such Lease as to Part only of the Lands demised, the Conditions of Re-entry, and all the Covenants in the said Lease applicable thereto, shall remain in full Force as to the Residue of the said Lands. Partial Re-entry.

And with respect to the Rents to be reserved by such Leases, be it enacted as follows:

- XV. The Rent reserved in any Lease made under this Act shall be the best improved yearly Rent that at the Time of making such Lease can be obtained or reasonably expected from a solvent Tenant, without Fine or Consideration of any kind: Provided always, that in the Case of a Mining Lease the Rent reserved shall not be less in Value than the One Twentieth Part or Share of the Produce raised out of such Mines or Minerals, without regard to the Expense of digging, raising, and laying the same on the Bank; and that in every such Mining Lease made by a partial Owner, who shall not be himself dispensable of Waste, Two Fifth Parts of the yearly Rent be reserved to the Lessor and the other Three Fifth Parts to the Parties entitled to the next vested Estate of Inheritance in the Mines comprised in the said Lease, during the Time such Estate shall continue vested in them: Provided also, that it shall be lawful to reserve a reduced Rent, either fixed or progressively increasing, for the First Three Years of the Term in the Case of any Building Lease, and for the First Seven Years in the Case of any Improvement Lease. Best Rent to be reserved.

- XVI. The Rents reserved and the Covenants and Conditions contained or implied in any Lease made under this Act shall enure to the Persons who for the Time being would, if such Lease had not been made, be entitled to the actual Possession of the Lands comprised in the said Lease, or to the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof according to their Estates and Interests therein. Rents and Covenants to enure to Parties entitled to Land.

- XVII. Every Lease made under this Act shall be by Indenture sealed and delivered by the Lessor in the Presence of One or more than Lease to be by Indenture.

than One Witness, and a Counterpart of every such Lease shall be executed by the Lessee thereof.

Stamp Duty. XVIII. Every Agricultural and Improvement Lease made under this Act shall be chargeable with a Stamp Duty of One Shilling, and no more, and every Counterpart shall be subject to the like Stamp Duty, 5 and no more, which Duties shall be subject to the like Laws and Regulations as to Collection and Management, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, as other Stamp Duties of the same Kind and Description in Great Britain and Ireland have been, are, or shall be hereafter subject to, as fully as if the said Laws and Regulations had been 10 specially enacted herein with reference to the Duties hereby imposed.

Registry of Lease. XIX. A Memorandum containing the full Particulars of every Lease made under this Act may be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the Lands demised shall be situate, by any Person interested in such Lease, containing the Name and Description of the 15 Lands demised, with the Townland, Parish, and Barony and County in which they or the greater Portion thereof are situate, the Names and Description of the Lessor and Lessee, the Rent reserved, the Date of the Execution, and Term demised, and thereupon the Particulars of such Memorandum shall be compared with the Instrument of 20 which it purports to contain the Particulars, and if the several Particulars required to be inserted in such Memorandum shall be found to be truly stated from the Instrument, they shall be entered by the Clerk of the Peace in a Book to be provided for that Purpose, to be called "The Registry of Leasehold Interests," with a 25 convenient Index according to an alphabetical Arrangement of the Townlands, for which Registry the Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence and no more shall be paid, and such Registry shall be open to Inspection at all reasonable Times for the Fee of Sixpence, and such Clerk of the Peace shall deliver without further or other Fee 30 a Registry Certificate of said Registry to the Person making such Registry, and shall endorse on such Lease a Memorandum of such Registry, and of the Date thereof, and shall sign the said Memorandum with his proper Name, and such Certificate, or Memorandum, endorsed as aforesaid, shall be received in any Court as Evidence of 35 the Registry of such Lease.

And with respect to the Force and Efficiency of Leases to be made pursuant to this Act, be it enacted as follows:

Leases made pursuant to Act to bind all Persons deriving XX. Every Lease made pursuant to the Provisions of this Act shall be valid and effectual to bind the Lessor, his Heirs, Executors, 40 Administrators, Assigns, and Successors in Estate, and all Persons whomsoever deriving under the same Title or Settlement as that under under which the Lessor derives, and notwithstanding any Entail, Law, or Custom to the contrary, and whether there be any Leasing Power annexed or belonging to the Estate of such Lessor, but so as not to prejudice or interfere with any other Power of leasing to him 5 belonging.

under same Title or Settlement.

And whereas it is expedient to make Provision against accidental Defects in Leasing Powers under this or any other Act of Parliament, or under any Settlement in Cases coming substantially within the Scope and Intention of such Act or Settlement: Be it therefore 10 enacted as follows:

XXI. In any Case in which a Power to make Leases pursuant to the Provisions of this or any other Act, or any Settlement, shall be incapable of being exercised by reason of some accidental and unforeseen Event or Variation of the Circumstances of the Case necessary to 15 bring the same within the exact Terms of the Act or Settlement, it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery in Ireland, by any Order to be made upon a summary Petition presented to it by any Party interested in the Matter, and upon Notice being given to such Person as the Court shall think necessary to authorize, and empower any 20 Person described in such Act or Settlement to make Leases, notwithstanding any such Variation in the Circumstances of the Case as the Court shall consider not to involve a substantial Departure from the true Scope and Meaning of such Act or Settlement, and every Lease made in pursuance of such Order, although not warranted by the 25 exact Terms of such Act or Settlement, shall be as valid as if the Terms of such Act or Settlement had been qualified, explained, or enlarged by the Terms of such Order.

accidental Defect of Powers.

11 & 12 Vict.
c. 36. s. 16.

And with respect to informal Leases made under Leasing Powers, be it enacted as follows:

XXII. Where any Lessee shall have entered into possession, under any Lease made in the intended Exercise of any Leasing Power conferred by this or any other Act of Parliament, or by any Settlement, without fraudulent Concert to injure the Rights of the Successors in Estate, and such Lease shall be invalid for Want of Execution by the proper Parties or by reason of some Non-compliance with the Terms of the Power, such Lease shall, in case the Lessee shall so desire it, and the Successor in Estate shall not be willing to confirm such Lease without Variation, be deemed to be a sufficient Contract by the Parties competent at the Time to execute the 35 Power to be enforced in a Court of Equity for a Grant of a valid Lease under the Power to the like Purpose and Effect, save so far as any Variation may be necessary to comply with the Terms of the 40 686.

Informal Lease to be valid as a Contract.
12 & 13 Vict.
c. 26. s. 2.

Sec. 7. Power: Provided that this Provision shall not extend to any Lease already surrendered or relinquished, or impeachable in any Action or Suit now pending by reason of such Invalidity.

Successor may confirm without Variation. XXIII. Where any Lessor or his Successor in Estate shall during the Continuance of the Possession taken under any such invalid Lease as aforesaid, be competent to confirm such invalid Lease without Variation, and shall offer so to do, the Lessee shall be bound on Request to accept such Confirmation, and such Confirmation may be by a Memorandum in Writing, signed by such Lessor or his Successor, and by such Lessee or by some other Person by them thereunto lawfully authorized, and after such Confirmation of said Lease and Acceptance thereof, such Lease shall be valid and take effect as if it had been originally valid.

Partial Confirmation. XXIV. Where upon or before the Acceptance of Rent under any such invalid Lease by the Successor in Estate of such Lessor, any Receipt, Memorandum, or Note in Writing, expressing in Terms a Confirmation of such Lease, is signed by such Successor in Estate, such Acceptance as against such Successor shall be deemed a Confirmation of such Lease.

Invalid Lease validated by subsequent Accrual of Title. XXV. Where any Lease, made in the intended Exercise of any supposed Leasing Power conferred by this or any other Act of Parliament, or by any Settlement, shall be invalid by reason of the Lessor not having at the Time Power to make such Lease, and the Estate of such Lessor in the Lands comprised in such Lease shall have continued, or shall have accrued and continued, until after such Lease might have been lawfully granted, such Lease shall take effect out of such Estate, and be as valid as if it had been granted at such last-mentioned Time; provided such Lease had not been then already surrendered or relinquished.

General Lease validated by co-existing Power. XXVI. Where any Lease shall be made by a Lessor having a valid Power of leasing the Lands comprised in such Lease, and such Lease cannot take effect, or have Continuance, independently of such Leasing Power, every such Lease shall take effect and be as valid as if the same were intended and had been expressed to have been granted in exercise of the said Power, although such Power be not referred to; provided that this Enactment shall not apply to any Lease already surrendered or relinquished, or impeachable in any Action now pending by reason of such Invalidity.

Remedy on Covenants preserved. XXVII. Nothing herein contained in respect of such invalid Leases shall prejudice or take away any Right of Action or Remedy to which, but for this Act, the Lessee might have been entitled under any Covenant for Title or quiet Enjoyment contained in such Lease, or any Right of Entry or Re-entry, or other Right or Remedy, to which the Lessor, or his Representatives or Successors in Estate, might, but for this Act, have been entitled to by reason of any Breach of Covenant or other Agreement contained in such Lease.

32 & 33 Vict.
 c. 20. s. 6.

And with respect to Agreements with Improving Tenants for Compensation for Improvements, he it enacted as follows:

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for any Person who is by this Act enabled to make an Agricultural Lease of Lands, by any such Lease or by a separate Instrument in Writing (which Instrument shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty), signed by such Person, to enter into an Agreement with the Tenant of such Lands, to the Effect that such Tenant, his Representative or lawful Assign, shall, as against the Person who shall require and retake the Possession of such Lands from such Tenant, on the Determination of the Tenancy by Effluxion of Time, or without the Act or Default of such Tenant, his Representative or lawful Assign, Notice to quit given by the Landlord, be entitled, on the retaking of such Possession, to such Compensation for Improvements as herein-after mentioned.

Partial Owner may enter into Agreement for Compensation of Improvements.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for any such Person enabled as aforesaid, by any such Lease or Instrument in Writing, to stipulate and agree that in case the Tenant shall make, put up, or erect any Improvements on the said Lands of a Nature removable and separable from the Soil, that is to say, by erecting or enlarging any Dwelling House, Farm Building, either detached or otherwise, or putting up any other Building, Gates, Palings, Brick or Stone Walls which shall be so erected, enlarged, or put up for agricultural Purposes only, and shall be suitable to the Size of the Holding, and add to the annual Value thereof upon a Letting for such Purpose, and which shall not have been otherwise compensated or allowed for, or erected in pursuance of some Obligation in that Behalf independent of the said Agreement, the Party so making the same, his Representative or lawful Assign, may claim from the Landlord so requiring and retaking Possession of the Premises, or his Representative, a reasonable Compensation for such Improvements, to be estimated according to the actual Value thereof at the Time of retaking such Possession after all proper Deductions have been made therefrom.

commence and execute his proposed Improvements, and having completed any such Improvements as herein-before last mentioned and not separable or removable from the Soil at any Time within Three Years from the Date of such Lease or Agreement, to present to the Assistant Barrister sitting at Quarter Sessions in the District in which the Holding, or the greater Part thereof, shall be situate, for his Signature, a Certificate of Completion according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and such Assistant Barrister, on Proof that due Notice of the intended Application for a Certificate of Completion (accompanied by a true Copy of the proposed Certificate) had been served on the Landlord entering into such Agreement as aforesaid, or his Successor in Estate, at least Fifteen Days before the First Day of such Sessions, and if no sufficient Objection be made thereto, and being satisfied that the said Certificate corresponds substantially with the Particulars of the Agreement or Lease, Plan, Specification, and Estimate, and that the said Works have been duly executed accordingly, shall, if he shall so think fit, sign a Certificate of Completion, and the same, when so signed, shall be thereupon handed by the said Assistant Barrister to the Clerk of the Peace, who, on Receipt thereof, and Payment of a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, shall cause the said Lease or Agreement, lodged by the Tenant in manner aforesaid, to be annexed to such Certificate, and shall enter the material Particulars of the said Certificate in the Book called the "Registry of Improvements," with a proper and convenient Reference to the Number of such Agreement and Certificate.

Contesting Certificate of Completion.

XXXVIII. The said Landlord, or his Successor in Estate, or any Person whose Estate or Interest in the Lands may be prejudiced or affected by the Allowance of the proposed Certificate of Completion, shall be at liberty, if dissatisfied therewith, to appear at the Quarter Sessions at which the said Certificate will be tendered to the Assistant Barrister for his Signature, and object to the Allowance of the said proposed Certificate, and for that Purpose may adduce Evidence to disprove or contradict the same in the whole or in part, and the Assistant Barrister shall thereupon either allow or disallow, or modify or alter the proposed Certificate, or postpone his Decision thereon to any subsequent Sessions for further Evidence, or direct such additional Evidence to be brought before him, or other Parties to be served with Notice, as he shall think right, and make such Order therein as to Costs as shall be agreeable to Justice.

Appeal to Judge of Assize.

XXXIX. In all Cases in which the Right to obtain a Certificate of Completion shall be litigated, it shall be lawful for any Party dissatisfied with the Decision of the Assistant Barrister, and who has appeared appeared before him in Person, or by Attorney, to appeal to the next going Judge of Assize, or in the County and County of the City of Dublin to the Judge in the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court as in other Cases of Civil Bill Appeals in the said County and County of the City, first giving Notice to the Persons who appeared on the opposite Side in the Court below, of his Intention to appeal, at least Fifteen Days before the Day on which such Appeal may first be lawfully heard, provided so many Days shall intervene; and in other Cases it shall be lawful for him to appeal at the next subsequent Assizes, or sitting at Nisi Prius, giving a similar Notice of Appeal; and the Judge who shall hear such Appeal shall either affirm or reverse the Assistant Barrister's Decision, or alter or modify the proposed Certificate, and finally decide thereon, and make such Order as to the Costs in the Court below and the Costs of the Appeal as shall be agreeable to Justice.

XL. Where the Right to a Certificate of Completion is litigated, such Certificate, if granted, shall not be registered until after the Expiration of the Period herein-before allowed for appealing; and in Cases where an Appeal is made, then not until after the Determination of such Appeal.

Certificate not to be registered pending Appeal.

XLI. The Certificate of Completion when registered shall be final and conclusive of the Truth of every Matter and Thing stated therein, and the same, or a Copy thereof purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Peace, shall be conclusive Evidence that the Provisions of this Act as to all Proceedings preliminary to the obtaining thereof have been complied with; and no other Evidence than a Copy thereof, purporting to be signed as aforesaid, shall be requisite in any Proceeding respecting the same: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to give Validity to any Certificate fraudulently obtained, but that every Person affected by any such Certificate may impeach the same on the Ground of Fraud, by Application on Notice to the Tenant or his Representatives, made within Six Years from the Date of the Registry thereof to the Assistant Barrister, who may order the same to be removed from the Registry, on being satisfied by Evidence that the Registry of the same was fraudulently obtained or procured: Provided always, that it shall be competent for any Tenant to appeal from such Order of the Assistant Barrister to the next going Judge of Assize, first giving to the Party on whose Application such Order shall have been made, or his legal Representative, due Notice of his Intention to appeal at least Fifteen Days before the Commencement of the Assizes, provided so many Days shall intervene; and in other Cases it shall be lawful for such Tenant to appeal at the next subsequent Assizes, giving a similar Notice of Appeal.

Certificate to be final.

CLAUSE E.
Recovery of Compensation by Civil Bill or Action.

XLII. The Compensation to which the Tenant shall be entitled under this Act for Improvements to the Maximum chargeable by virtue of this Act, and reduced by such proportionate Part, when the Amount claimed shall not exceed the Sum of Forty Pounds, shall be sued for and only be recoverable by Civil Bill Process, in which the Tenant for the Time being who shall be dispossessed, or his Representative, shall be the Plaintiff, and the Party so removing him, or his Representative, shall be the Defendant, and an Appeal shall lie for the Plaintiff and Defendant from every Decree and from every Dismiss, whether on the Merits or without Prejudice, in the same Manner and subject to the same Regulations as are at present or may be hereafter in force relating to Appeals from the Decisions of Assistant Barristers in other Actions; and when the Amount claimed shall exceed Forty Pounds, the same shall be sued for by Action in the Superior Courts of Law, in which the Tenant for the Time being whose Interest shall be evicted shall be the Plaintiff, and the Landlord shall be the Defendant.

CLAUSE F.
No Tenant to be entitled to Compensation, if Landlord, at the End of his Tenancy, be willing to continue him in Occupation.

XLIII. No such Tenant shall have any Claim to Compensation under this Act for Improvements of a Nature not separable or removable from the Soil, and coming within any of the said Classes herein-before mentioned, if upon the Determination of the Tenancy such Tenant shall give up the Occupation of his Holding, notwithstanding that the Landlord shall be willing to allow him to continue Tenant, or to allow any solvent Person to whom he may assign his Interest in such Improvements to become the Tenant of such Holding for the then unexpired Residue of the respective compensating Periods, upon the Terms and at a Rent not exceeding the Rent at which the same was theretofore held.

CLAUSE H.
Staying Execution in Ejectment where registered Claim for Compensation subsists.

XLIV. In any Case in which a Defendant in any Ejectment Proceeding, other than for Nonpayment of Rent or Breach of any Covenant or Condition contained in the Lease or Agreement, shall establish by Affidavit or other Evidence, to the Satisfaction of the Court in which such Proceedings shall be pending, that he has, as against the Party proceeding to evict his Interest in the Lands in his Possession, and in respect of such Lands a valid Claim for Compensation, in respect of Improvements made upon the said Lands and not separable or removeable therefrom, and duly registered under this Act and unsatisfied, it shall be lawful for the Court to stay the Execution of any Writ of Habere facias possessionem, or Decree for Possession, for a reasonable Time to enable such Defendant to establish his Claim and avail himself of the Option herein-before in such Case given, upon such Terms, nevertheless, as to giving Security and otherwise as to the Court shall seem proper and just.

XLV. If

XLV. If any Landlord, after the Lodgment with the Clerk of the Peace of a Copy of the Agreement, in the Manner herein-before provided, shall proceed, by any Process of Law, against such Tenant, for the Purpose of evicting, and shall evict the Interest of such Tenant in any Holding in respect whereof such Agreement has been lodged, otherwise than for Nonpayment of Rent or Breach of Covenant, Condition, or Agreement, it shall be thereupon lawful for such Tenant to proceed by Civil Bill Process, according to the Practice of the Civil Bill Court, against such Landlord, for the Purpose of recovering a just and reasonable Compensation for the Expenditure, in Labour and Money, bonâ fide made by such Tenant in respect of any Improvements; and the Assistant Barrister shall (subject, however, to the Provisions herein contained) give a Decree to him for such Amount as he shall be entitled to, on its being proved that such Improvements were bonâ fide made, or partly made, by such Tenant, pursuant to such Agreement and the Provisions of this Act; and an Appeal may be made from the Decision of the Assistant Barrister in the same Way as in other Cases is provided by the statutable Enactments now or hereafter to be in force regulating the Course of Civil Bill Proceedings.

CLAUSE I.
If Tenant evicted after lodging a Specification, he may sue his Landlord by Civil Bill Process; with Power to either Party to Appeal.

XLVI. In any Action or other Proceeding brought or taken by any Tenant for any Sum to which he shall be entitled as Compensation under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Landlord, if necessary, to avail himself of the following Matter, by way of Defence to such Claim; (that is to say,)

Landlord's Grounds of Defence to Tenant's Claim under this Act.

That the Tenant, subsequently to the making of the Improvement or Expenditure for which he claims Compensation, did, without the Consent in Writing of his Landlord, or the known Agent or Receiver of such Landlord duly authorized in that Behalf, unlawfully sublet or subdivide all or some Part of his Holding; and it shall not be necessary for such Landlord to produce in Evidence, or prove the Deed or Instrument (if any) by which such subletting of such Holding was made.

XLVII. In all Cases in which the Person liable to the Payment of any Sum of Money for Compensation shall be entitled as against the Person claiming the same to any Cross Demand or Deduction for or in respect of any bad Husbandry, Dilapidation, Want of sufficient Repair, Waste, or Destruction of or in the Improvements for which Compensation is so claimed, or shall be entitled to any Arrear of Rent due out of such Holding, or to any Sum or Sums of Money or Damages for or in respect of Rates, Taxes, or Assessments left unpaid by such Tenant, and to which such Tenant or his Holding was liable, or for or in respect of the Breach of any Covenant or Agreement in respect of such Holding, which the Person claiming such Compensation was bound to fulfil, it shall be lawful for such Person liable to the Payment of such Sum of Money to set off, in any Action, Civil Bill, and other Proceeding for the Recovery of such Sum of Money, the Amount of such Deduction, Rent, Sum or Sums of Money, or 5 Damages against the Amount to which the Person claiming such Sum of Money shall be entitled; and it shall be competent for the Court which shall adjudicate on such Tenant's Claim, at the same Time, and by the same Decree, or Judgment, or Order, to adjudicate on such Set-off or Cross Demand, either by deducting the Amount 10 thereof from the Claim, or by giving a Decree, or Verdict, or Order for the Defendant, in Cases where the Amount established as a Set-off, or by way of a Cross Demand, shall exceed the Amount which the Tenant is entitled to recover: Provided always, that in Civil Bill Proceedings Notice of such Set-off or Cross Demand, in Writing, signed 15 by the Defendant or his Attorney, shall be given at least Six Days before the Commencement of the Quarter Sessions or Assizes at which the Case may be heard, which Notice shall contain the full Particulars of such Set-off or Cross Demand, and that in Proceedings in the Superior Courts such Set-off or Cross Demand shall and may 20 be established or relied on in the same Way as Matters of Set-off may be relied on or established by the Practice of the Superior Courts.

Assistant
Barrister may direct a Reference to the Board of Works.

XLVIII. In Cases of Doubt or Difficulty, or contradictory Evidence in any Proceeding before the Assistant Barrister under any of the aforesaid Provisions, it shall be competent for such Assistant Barrister 25 to postpone his Decision until the next subsequent Sessions, and, if he think right so to do, to direct a Reference to the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, requiring them, or some properly qualified Person to be by them deputed for the Purpose, to report specially on any Question of Fact which the Assistant Barrister may desire to 30 ascertain, for which Report the Person making the same shall be entitled to receive such a reasonable Fee, to be paid by such Party or Parties, as the Assistant Barrister shall determine.

Forms to be provided by the Clerk of the Peace.

XLIX. All Forms of Specifications, Undertakings, and Certificates of Completion intended to be lodged or deposited with the Clerk of the 35 Peace, as herein-before provided, shall be obtained from the Office of such Clerk of the Peace, on Payment of a Sum of One Shilling for each Form; and the Clerk of the Peace for each County shall cause printed Forms of Specifications and Certificates of Completion to be prepared on Parchment, of uniform Shape and Dimensions, with a 40 sufficient Margin, and shall file the same as they shall be received, in compact Order, attaching them by Laces through the Margin to Portfolio

Portfolio Covers, after the Manner of Books, so that the same shall be kept free from Injury, and easily accessible.

L. If any Clerk of the Peace in Ireland shall refuse or wilfully omit to perform any Act which he is by any Provision in this Act contained required or directed to do, he shall forfeit and pay to the Party thereby aggrieved the Sum of Five Pounds for every such Refusal or Omission, such Sum to be recovered by Civil Bill Process before the Assistant Barrister, in the same Manner as if it were a Debt due by the Person so refusing or omitting to the Party thereby 10 aggrieved.

Penalty for Neglect of Duty in Clerk of Peace.

LI. The Schedule to this Act annexed shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of this Act, and the Forms therein contained shall be used, save so far as the Nature of the Case may make it necessary or proper to vary from the same respectively, and no 15 Variance or Defect, or verbal or technical Error therein, or in any Notice or Document under this Act, not calculated to mislead, shall invalidate or vitiate such Proceeding, Notice, or Document.

Schedule Part of the Act.

LII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall extend only to Lands in Ireland.

Act only to extend to Ireland.
